The Rocky Mountain Network invites visionary church planters to establish a beacon of faith in this dynamic area. Read on to discover why 80927 is the ideal location for your new church plant and how you can make a lasting impact on this community.

The Community Awaits Your Vision

- Growing Population. 80927 is one of the fastest-growing zip codes in Colorado Springs. With new housing developments and an influx of young families, this area is ripe for community-building and spiritual growth. The population here is diverse with a significant number of residents in their 30s and 40s, creating an ideal environment for family-focused ministry.
- Economic Vitality. The local economy is robust with a median household income well above the national average. This economic stability translates into a community that can support and sustain a vibrant church ministry. The combination of economic growth and new developments means that now is the perfect time to establish a church in this flourishing area.
- Education and Schools. 80927 is home to some of the top-rated schools in Colorado Springs. Families are drawn to the area for its excellent educational opportunities making it an ideal place to minister to young families and children. A church that offers strong youth and children's programs will be a welcome addition to this education-focused community.

Why 80927 Needs Your Church

- A Growing Need for Community. Despite the rapid growth and development, 80927 lacks sufficient places for community gatherings and spiritual nourishment. Your church plant can fill this gap, providing a place for residents to connect, worship, and grow in their faith. The community is looking for a strong spiritual presence, and your church can be that guiding light.
- Untapped Spiritual Potential. With a growing population, there is an increasing number of people seeking spiritual guidance and a sense of belonging. Many new residents have yet to find a church home, offering a unique opportunity for your ministry to reach out and engage with unchurched individuals. Your church can become the spiritual hub of this community by fostering deep and meaningful connections.
- Family-Centered Ministry Opportunities. The demographic makeup of 80927, with its high concentration of young families, creates a prime environment for family-centered ministry. Programs that cater to children, youth, and parents will resonate deeply with the community and help to build strong families and a strong church body. Your church can become a cornerstone for family support and growth.
