Plant Your Church in Orem/Vineyard, Utah

Are you a determined and resilient church planter with a vision for growth, a passion for community, and a heart for spreading the Gospel? Look no further than the vibrant and growing areas of Orem and Vineyard, Utah, where the Rocky Mountain Network is eager to partner with you in planting a new church.

Why Orem and Vineyard, UT?

- Prime Locations 84057, 84058, 84059, 84097: Nestled between the majestic Wasatch Mountains and Utah Lake, Orem and Vineyard offer a picturesque setting with a rapidly growing population. The zip codes 84057, 84058, 84059, and 84097 are not just numbers, they represent thriving communities with unique opportunities for church planters.
- Growing Population and Family-Oriented Communities: Orem and Vineyard are home to a diverse and expanding population. These areas have seen significant growth over the past decade, with Vineyard being one of the fastest-growing cities in Utah. The population is young, vibrant, and family-oriented, with a median age of around 25 years. Families, students, and professionals make up the demographic fabric, creating a dynamic environment ripe for spiritual growth and community engagement.
- Educational Hub: Orem is home to Utah Valley University (UVU), the largest public university in the state. With over 40,000 students, UVU presents a unique opportunity to reach young adults and future leaders. This academic presence enriches the community and provides a constant influx of new residents who are seeking meaningful connections and purpose.
- Economic Growth and Stability: The Orem-Vineyard area boasts a robust economy with a mix of technology, healthcare, education, and retail sectors. The economic stability and job opportunities attract young professionals and families looking for a place to settle and grow, both personally and spiritually.

The Spiritual Landscape: A Field Ready for Harvest

- Underrepresented Christian Presence. Unlike Salt Lake City, which is known for its strong religious communities, Orem and Vineyard are still areas where many residents are spiritually searching. The presence of Christian churches, particularly those affiliated with the Assemblies of God, is significantly less compared to the population size. This gap represents a tremendous opportunity for church planters to make a lasting impact.
- Community Needs. The residents of Orem and Vineyard are in need of more vibrant, contemporary Christian communities that offer support, fellowship, and spiritual growth. There are many who have not yet heard the message of hope and redemption that the Gospel brings. By planting a church here, you have the chance to meet this profound need and transform lives.
- Unique Opportunity for Outreach. With a strong focus on family values and education, Orem and Vineyard are prime locations for church programs that cater to families, youth, and students. Community events, outreach programs, and family-friendly services can flourish here, bringing people together and creating a strong, supportive network.

The Rocky Mountain Network is committed to supporting church planters with resources, mentorship, and a strong network of fellow believers. We understand the challenges and rewards of church planting and are here to walk alongside you every step of the way.
